

KENDRIYA VIDYALAYA GANDHIGRAM, DINDIGUL

LIKE FATHER LIKE DAUGHTER

Who are twins?

Twins are two off springs produced in the same pregnancy.

Name the different type of twins

There are two types of twins

▣ Identical twins

▣ Non identical twins

Who are Identical twins?

Twins who are like in genetic characteristic and typically very similar in appearance are called identical twins.

Who are Non identical twins?

Two children born to the occasion but who don't look the same are non identical twins.

What is polio?

Polio is a highly contagious disease caused by a virus that attacks nervous system.

What are triplets?

Three babies born to the same parents at a time are called triplets.

What causes polio?

Poliomyelitis virus spreads from person to person through contaminated water which attacks our nervous system.

What is adoption?

Adoption is process by which a couple became legal parents of a child who was not born to them.

What is Pulse polio?

Pulse polio is a program run by the government to eradicate polio from the country. Vaccination camps are organized every month where every child below five years of age are given the polio vaccine free of cost.

What is the abbreviation of DNA?

Deoxyribonucleic acid.

What are the symptoms of paralytic polio infections?

Symptoms of paralytic polio infections...

- ▶ Abnormal sensations
- ▶ Bloated feeling in abdomen
- ▶ Constipation
- ▶ Difficulty urinating
- ▶ Breathing difficulty
- ▶ Drooling
- ▶ Headache
- ▶ Fever for 5-7 days
- ▶ Sensitivity to touch

What are genetic diseases?

Genetic diseases are those diseases which are inherited from their parents, while others are caused due to DNA abnormality

Which resemblances a child may acquire from his parents?

A child finds resemblances in height, colour of eyes , hair , texture , habits ,voice ,way of laughing ,aptitude and hobbies.

What is heredity?

Heredity means passing of characters from parents to the children.