

Saying without speaking

I. Fill in the blanks:

1. We can feel the world around us by our sense organs.
2. Human beings have five sense organs.
3. Our eyes express our feelings.
4. Blind people cannot see the world.
- 5.

II. Match the following:

1. People who cannot see – blind
2. People who cannot speak – dumb/mute
3. People who cannot hear – deaf
4. Person who lacks one or more body parts – handicap

III. Answer the following questions:

1. How many sense organs human beings have?

Ans: Human beings have five sense organs.

2. Name the sense organs and their functions.

Ans: Eyes – to see

Ear – to hear

Nose – to smell

Tongue – to taste

Skin – to feel

3. Who are blind people? How they read and write?

Ans: People who cannot see are blind people. They use Braille language to read and write.

4. Which people use sign language?

Ans: Deaf and dumb people use sign language.

5. Why are sense organs important?

Ans: Sense organs are important because they help us to know what is happening around us.

6. Who are differently abled persons?

Ans: People who are physically challenged are called differently abled.