

OUR FESTIVAL

- India is a land of festivals
- There are many Indian festivals and celebrations

DIWALI

- Diwali is the festivals of lights.
- People decorate their houses with lights.
- People wear new dresses.
- They give sweets and gifts to each other.
- They worship Goddess lakshmi.
- They light diyas and burst crackers

PONGAL

- Pongal is a harvesting festival of Tamilnadu.
- It is also celebrated in north as mahara sankaranthi.
- People worship the rain on the first day.
- They worship the sun on the second day.
- They worship the cow on the third day.
- People make sweet Pongal on this day.

ONAM

- Onam is a harvesting festival of kerala.
- People wear new dresses and visit temples.
- They cook different curries using different vegetables.
- They enjoy boat race in the evening.

HOLI

- Holi is a festival of colours.
- People put gulal(colours) and throw coloured water on one another

Chirstmas

Chirstmas is celebrated on 25th December every year.

It is the birthday of Jesus Christ.

Christmas tree is decorated with stars,balls,bells and gifts.

People wear new dress and go to church.

Raksha bandhan

- It is a festival of brothers and sisters.
- On this day sisters tie rakhi on the wrists of brothers
- Brothers give gifts to their sisters

DUSSEHRA

- It is one of the festival of hindus.
- Ram leela is staged for ten days.
- On this day Rama killed Ravana the demon king of lanka.
- The effigies of ravana ,his brothers and his sons were burnt.
- People gather in large numbers to see this event.