

ON THE MOVE AGAIN

Who is mukadam?

Mukadam is an agent who lends money to the poor village people. He is an agent for sugarcane factories who helps them to find work in sugarcane field.

What does a mukadam explain to the village?

Mukadam explains to the village in which areas they would go for the next six months.

Why does everyone borrow money from the mukadam?

Poor people in village borrow money from the mukadam to meet their basic needs like food and clothes.

How can farming be done without raining?

Farming can be done without rain water. Fresh methods of irrigation can be used to provide the required water to crops. Water can be used from canals, tube wells for irrigating the fields.

Canal Irrigation

Tube wells

Where do the caravan of families on the move settle?

For six months they stay near the sugarcane factories and work there. Their children do not go to school. They help their parents in the work.